Miss puffy eyes

Once upon a time, there lived a miss puffy eyes.

Her eyes were soft and swollen cause she always cried.

*One day she couldn't take it anymore.
and died.*

Antibiotics and short skirts

You choose out your clothes, trying to look like those girls. the skirt is quite short, the shirt is quite revealing, is a pair of fishnets really gonna be enough? It will suffice, Looks have priority.

Don't forget your antibiotics, we wouldn't want the bladder infection to get worse, maybe you shouldn't have intercourse after all? Maybe you should take a condom? Maybe you should do it somewhere cleaner? It will suffice, sex has priority.

It's cold in the car, pull yourself together. You say you're a little warm, you take off your coat. Press together the little cleavage you have. The seat is uncomfortable, isn't it? Don't slack off, stick out your ass. Last thing you want is to look weird, let him sit on the seat, take care of this. sex has priority.

Make sure you look enthusiastic, there is no time for you anyway. His satisfaction has priority.

you know why you do all this.

You need to hang in there.

You need to make sure that you are enough.

otherwise

he will get bored

he will find someone better

you'll be replaceable.

Suffocate the thoughts

with the sounds of breathing.

And now you are done. the rain hitting the glass. The darkness hiding the outside world. You're in an aquarium being watched by the skeptic eyes of the universe.

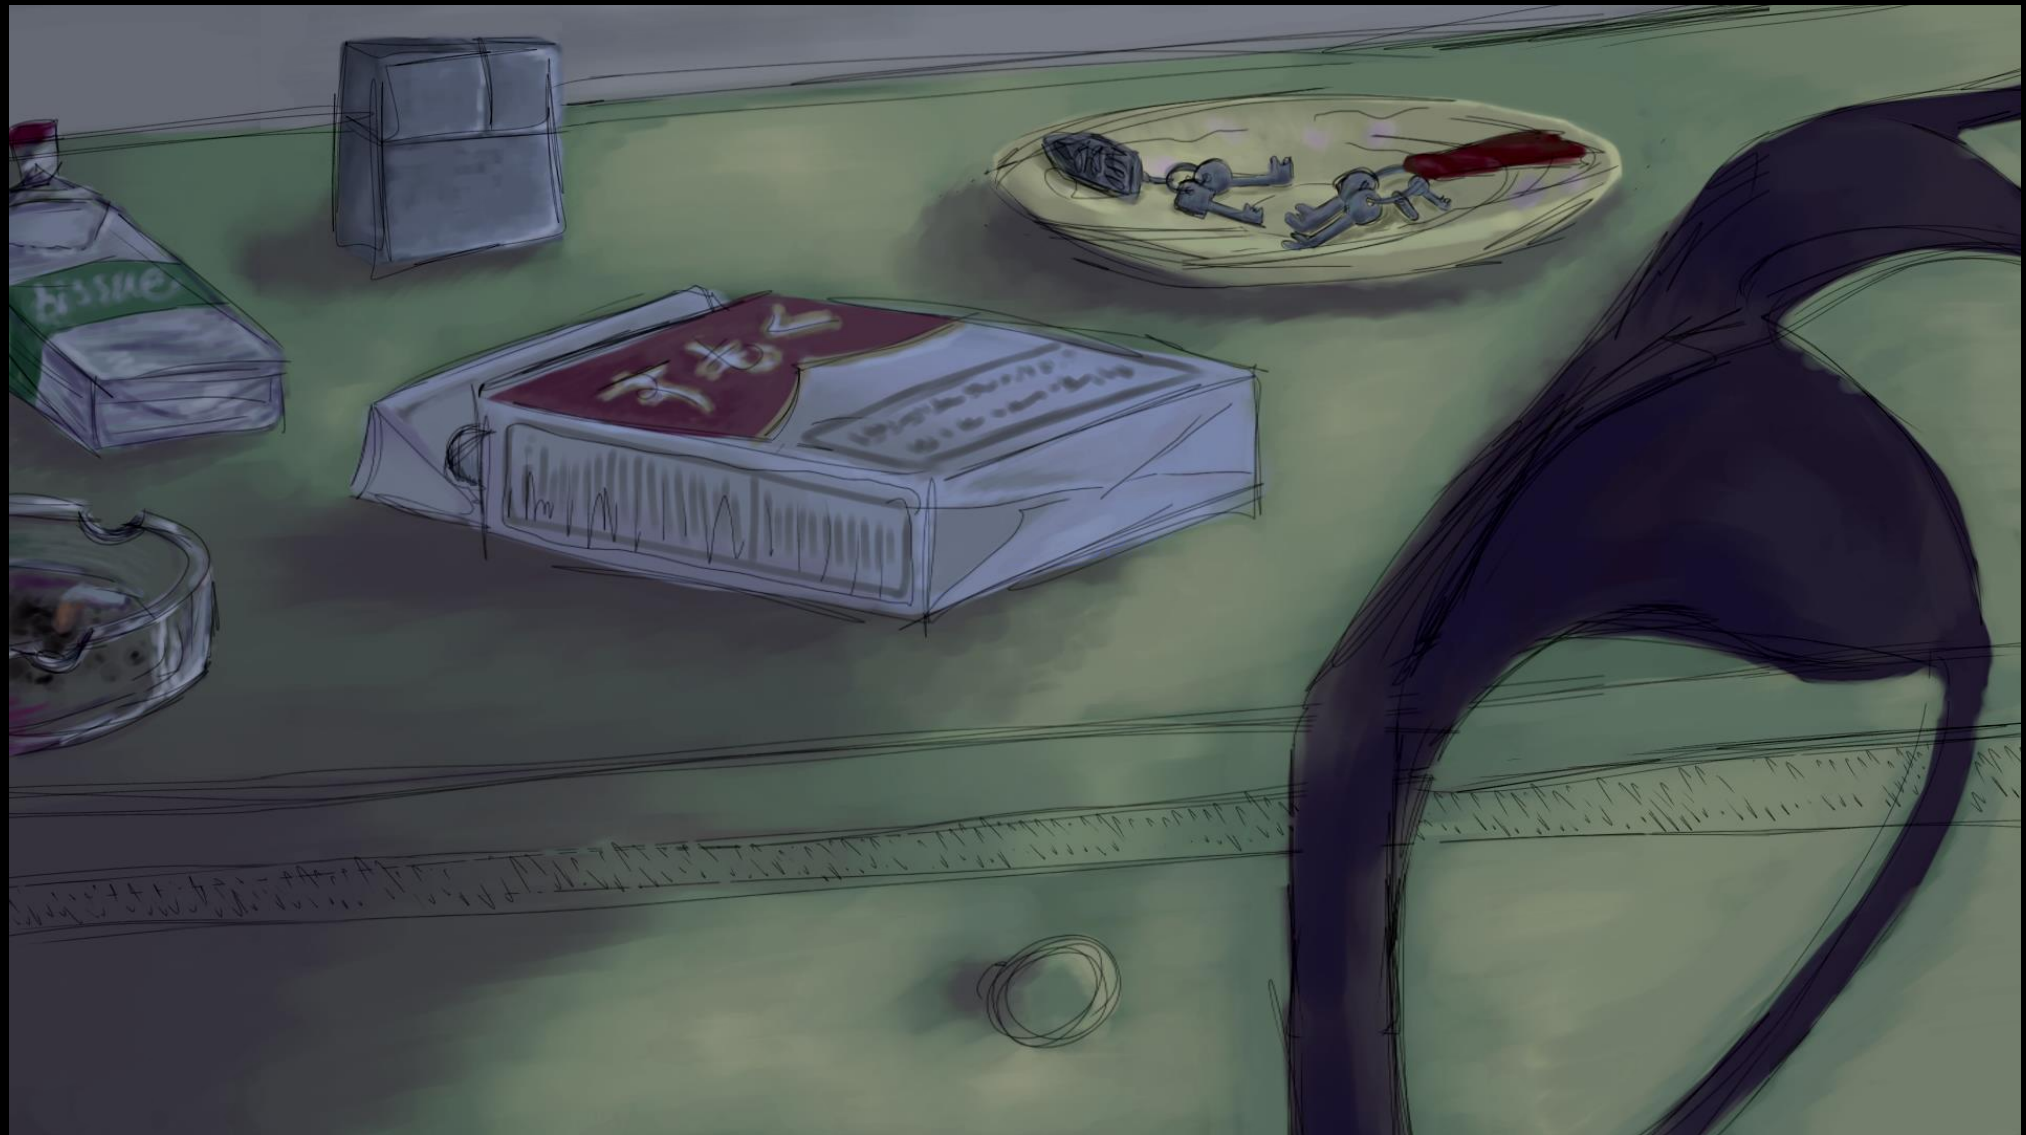

You cling onto him.

Hold onto this feeling that he's all yours

just a little longer.

"It's late"
